INTRODUCTION

As the official caterer also for the Hungarian National Theater and the National Palace of Arts our company had the chance to provide services for more than half a million guests. We are proud of earning the appreciation of such distinguished guests as H.R.H Albert II of Belgium, the President of Croatia as well as Andrew G. Vajna, the producer of Evita and Terminator 3. Let us introduce the unique result of the fruitful cooperation of Burg Catering and Corpus Communications, our new concept of catering, entertainment and culture.

EVENT ORGANIZATION

The modular structure of our offer makes you personalize your Hungarian Days event easily, and helps to calculate cost elements precisely. Beside the different menu options we offer you a delicate wine selection of prestigious Hungarian wines and to make the evening really unforgettable you can choose from our traditional Hungarian cultural programs, as for example a gipsy band, folk dancers or a string quartet. Thus you can fit the size and cost of the event to your own requests.

THE CONCEPT

In our accelerating world, hotel, restaurant and catering managers always have to face the ever-increasing demand from their clients and guests for something different, something new. Yes, today man can fly over continents in a couple of hours, and visit different cultures even every day. Many of us are actually doing it. But, it is good though to have a rest in our favorite club, restaurant or hotel, or even when we are traveling, to get special care from our host, while still getting the chance to experience the taste of different cultures.

Why couldn't we bring them to our vicinity?

This question inspired us to make the Hungarian Gastronomy and Culture available around the world.

We believe that the Hungarian cuisine is a vivid dash of colour on the World's gastronomic palette and with our Chaine des Rotisseurs awarded Chef we would also like to prove this to our partners.

EVENT ORGANIZATION

It is your choice to organize a large gala dinner or a smaller reception with buffet selection. In every case our staff works in cooperation with your own local staff. Upon your selected menu request we compile for you the list of the needed standard ingredients in advance and all special Hungarian spices and ingredients, including wines are provided by us.

In order to keep the Hungarian Days event on the highest standard a catering manager with an interpreter is there to manage the preparation and production works in every case.

THE CONCEPT

Our carefully designed package of services for organizing Hungarian Gastronomic and Cultural Days makes available hotels and restaurants in any part of the world to extend their selection of offers, which is vital in the more and more demanding economic environment.

This program matched the highest expectations of everyone we have delivered so far. Our experience is that guests like diversity and are delighted by new opportunities to taste a different way of cooking in an authentic cultural atmosphere and this results in an increased interest towards other services of the host hotel or restaurant as well.

OUR SERVICES

In the Hungarian Days program we provide Hungarian menu cooked by our professional cooks, with special spices, which we bring from Hungary. To bring also an authentic atmosphere, we may provide a gypsy band that is playing authentic Hungarian songs and classical music in a way you may not have heard it from other bands. We may also bring folk dancers, who are dancing the most spectacular dances from Hungary and costumes to put on hostesses who welcome the guests. When preparing our menu offers we consider the host country's ethnic or religious gastronomic traditions as well.

Upon your request we provide a comprehensive package of services and manage the organization as it follows:

- We provide our professional staff for managing the event from the preparation works till the last guest left.
- We provide the unique, Hungarian ingredients, spices and wines for the menu.
- Our cooks prepare the menu and teach the local staff on request.
- We organize the entertainment based on your request.
